

WURLITZER®

CLASSIC 2000 -
a replica of a 1950's masterpiece
comes to life

CLASSIC 2000

GB-M-6.1

1950

CLASSIC 2000 - a replica of a 1950's masterpiece
comes to life

WURLITZER®

Inspired by the chrome lightning road cruisers of the 50's, Wurlitzer introduced the Model 2000 in 1956. It became one of the most famous jukeboxes of that era.

Features

- 100 CD changer
- Philips CD Pro player
- Stereo amplifier with 2x55w rms
- Mono subwoofer with separate amplifier
- Bill acceptor ready (USA)
- Electronic coin acceptor
- Microprocessor controlled. Programme individual songs or play complete CDs. Free Play, Continuous Play and Background Music modes available
- Easy to connect to external speakers and microphone kit
- Full-function infrared remote control for volume, mute, cancel, and song selection
- CD title cards contained on 80 card, motor driven system
- Presentation of all title songs and cover photos from 100 CDs in a leather bound book
- Coloured illumination of the CD mechanism
- CD Title card software

Power supply

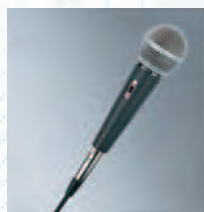

- 100 – 240V, 50/60cps - USA 117V, 60cps

Optional

- Output transformer
- Microphone kit

The songs are shown on max 80 title cards. The pages are turned automatically at the touch of a button and give full view of 8 CDs at the same time.

Option:
Microphone kit

Full-function remote control

Dimensions

Height – 145cm / 57"
Width – 90cm / 35.4"
Depth – 75cm / 29.5"
Weight – 170kg / 375lb