

BLACK OUT

A New Breed of Prize Merchandiser

By integrating transparent screen technology with multi-touch technology, we have bridge the gap between true video game entertainment and the Prize Merchandiser category.

Blackout is the second of Adrenaline genuine development: from software to hardware we did cover all angles. After assessing the player interest on our last few iPhone app based products, we decided to develop an IP of our own. A game dedicated to provide the player with all its beloved game play parameters. Easy to understand, fun, quick and colorful, Blackout will challenge your skills and hopefully make you a winner; if not you will sure walk away with a smile

The cabinet has an optimal footprint, and match the industry standard when it comes to security. Showcasing your very own mix of 12 minor and/or major prizes, it is a true skill based product. One with all the fine-tuning capacity an operator could wish for a profitable midway.

A simple gameplay

The players has five tries to flick over the characters at the darkened sun. Cover 100% of the sun's surface and you just made yourself a winner!
