Pump Jump

Andamiro's philosophy in providing 'happiness to all' is truly visible in every product line and it continues to set standards throughout the industry. Our newest hits, Pump It Up Jump and Winners' Cube, make a powerful statement across the entire industry and it ensures nothing less than success in every location. Both Pump It Up Jump and Winners' Cube game play is derived from the backbone of Andamiro's passion for creating innovative designs.

With the continued success of the Pump It Up series, Andamiro introduces Pump It Up Jump, the world's finest dance simulation game that is geared towards kids. This revolutionary game features new kid styled tunes with some pump classics and new syncopated favorites. Physical dimensions of the Pump It Up Jump have been heavily modified and compressed to accommodate and attract younger players. Interface is very user-friendly and it provides sing-a-long entertainment for the whole family. In addition, Pump It Up Jump serves as an alternative aerobic exercise that kids can enjoy. The new cabinet features custom Andamiro design and updated hardware.
