

BMIGaming.com / The Stinger Report 2013 BOSA Arcade Awards Revealed

Annual 'Best of Show Arcade Machine Awards' for Innovation and Creativity in New Arcade Machines and Amusement Devices throughout the industry is announced

(Feb 7, 2013 - Boca Raton, FL) - BMIGaming.com and The Stinger Report announced the highly anticipated 2013 Best of Show Arcade Machine Awards (BOSA) that signify the best new gaming innovations and applications as seen in the amusement industry, and new for 2013, the BOSA Awards continues to grow in scope, with the inclusion of a newly created award category for 'Videmption (Video Redemption) Arcade Games'.

Marking its second year, and having generated a strong industry following, BMI Gaming and The Stinger Report are pleased to announce the 2013 Best of Show Award winners, which are supported with an official awards plaque bestowed to it recipients, with trade promotion opportunities accorded to winners to help promote their innovative new products.

The BOSA has become a rallying point in spearheading both innovation and originality within the amusement and attraction sector. After an exhaustive review of the latest new arcade machines represented at the end of 2012, during the IAAPA Amusement Expo in Orlando, FL, and through a very arduous voting process between The Stinger Report and BMIGaming.com teams, the 2013 BOSA Award winners are ready to be announced today.

The BOSA Awards are currently split into three product categories that chart both new and important amusement products in the industry, broken down into three metal awards of Gold, Silver and Bronze, and a "Notable Mention" Award :

Category One : 'Video Arcade Games'

The marriage of the latest physical effects with a compelling and unique "horror" themed gameplay offers some real thrills in small theater-style package.

High-octane snowmobile racing game with a highly physical driving position supported by the latest social networking infrastructure achieves a new level of player competition.

Creating a compelling mix of motion effects with an original shooting narrative, wrapped in an attractive and eye-catching cabinet package designed to appeal to first-time players.

Breaking into the realm of stereoscopic 3-D in the video arcade game sector, with the marriage of a compelling shooting game combined with an immersive screen presentation.

Category Two : 'Videmption Arcade Games'

Taking the original 1970's classic video battle game to a new level of player excitement with a new presentation and outstanding design to make a 'super-sized' redemption extravaganza.

The combination of simultaneous four-player action on a compelling 47" flat-screen table-top display, along with addicting gameplay and graphics, singles this game out for special attention.

Taking the highly popular iOS game app, which was re-packaged into a notable cabinet, along with its addictive gameplay makes this fun videmption title one that keep players coming back.

The BOSA awards recipients were judged internally by the staff at both BMIGaming.com and The Stinger Report, based on products reviewed at the end of 2012 at the IAAPA Amusement Expo; with awards going to new arcade games that score high in the areas of 'game originality', 'market relevance' and a 'unique or popular approach', along with the all important "fun factor" experienced during gameplay, plus other criteria used to judge potential BOSA winners.

Growing in size each year, the BOSA will continue to chart new gaming trends and use of new and innovating technology that shape the digital out-of-home entertainment arena.

The physical BOSA Awards will be handed-out during the 2013 Amusement Expo in Las Vegas in March - and as the BOSA is quickly becoming a noted "mark of excellent" within the industry for unique new products that buyers can use to their advantage, BOSA winners can promote their products in trade press and marketing literature using specially-created BOSA logos..
